B Number the following in the right sequence.

	Then I heard the sound of voices. The workmen were coming back.
	He took the mirror from me, went to the window, and a minute later the mirror was lying in a thousand pieces.
	My story begins about seven years ago, in 1875.
	I took a workman's hammer and began to bring it down hard on that horrible, smiling face.
	I went into the castle and the Count carefully locked the door behind me.
	Her strong white teeth touched my neck. "Kiss me! Kiss me!" I thought.
	Goodbye Mina! Will I ever see you again?
	She took the gold cross from her neck and put it into my hand.
	"My young friend. Sleep only in this room or your bedroom".
	The Count did not come to breakfast, but there was a letter from him on the table.
